Dear Mr. Makins:

I hope that you will be able to join us for the 5-6 April conference at the State Department on Europe in the 1980s. The tentative agenda is enclosed, and we are in the process of getting our list of speakers and discussants lined up. Robert Schaetzel, Robert Pfaltzgraff, Hal Sonnenfeldt and Catherine Kelleher, among others, will be joining us for the sessions on economic, political-military aspects of European relations. We would like to invite you to be a speaker on the UK and Europe on April 6th; Gerald Livingston and Robert Lieber have already been selected as participants.

If your calendar permits you to participate, please contact my associate, [redacted] We will then keep you apprised of any changes in the agenda and the State Department will advise you of the administrative details for the conference.

STAT

Sincerely,

Milton Kovner
National Intelligence Officer
for
Western Europe
